

Beth Bechdol
Deputy Director
Indiana State Department of Agriculture

Beth Bechdol is the Deputy Director of the Indiana State Department of Agriculture. Prior to joining ISDA, she was Chief of Staff to the Under Secretary of Farm and Foreign Agricultural Services at the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

She also served as Deputy Staff Economist for Senator Richard Lugar on the Senate Agriculture Committee during the development of the 2002 Farm Bill. Previously, she was a Vice President in the Washington Office of Sparks Companies, Inc., where she conducted extensive evaluations of agricultural farm and trade policy.

Beth received her bachelor's degree from Georgetown University in International Law and International Affairs. She completed her masters' degree at Purdue University in agricultural economics. She was raised on a corn and soybean farm in Auburn, Ind.